DEDICATED TO Mr.Shea

From Caesar to Nixon, from mythology to chapter two — you've been there to help us through.

Twinkle Toes, the new alarm clock that wouldn't go off, football games,
the breakfast after the breakfast,
pumpkins, May 22, Athletic Director??,
the Government Day Assemblies,
"It's a boy!!", Newsweeks, the prom, those awful nicknames!!, no heat and open windows,
big fat jellies.
Is that all we'll remember?
Afraid not, Mr. Shea. We are taking those pieces of unexplainable knowledge you gave us and they will stay with us for the rest of our lives.

and Mr. Blake

. . . exemplar of quality education

. . . inspiration toward achievement

. . . advocate of community spirit

. . . devoted to the professional tradition admired . . . respected . . . cherished

. . . endowed with a rare, gentle, humane sensitivity that is our most treasured remembrance of you.

To the Class of 1972

Our heartiest congratulations are offered to you for achieving your immediate objective — Graduation.

We thank you for the spirit you contributed to Medfield High School; a spirit which brought honor to you as individuals and to the whole school.

May your future be bright and happy and may the Lord hold you in the palm of His hand.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas A. Blake
Superintendent of Schools

To the Class of 1972

The "Happy" Class — has shown enthusiasm this year and has made a very positive change in the life of the school. May each of you continue to be happy and reach success in your life goals.

Russell H. Johnston, Jr.
Principal

"... but, Daddy, I have to!"

"One shot and I'm good for the whole day!"

"I'll check the boys' room when I finish my cigar."

If anyone should ask me to give a reason
why I loved my friend,
there could be only one answer:
because he was he,
because I was I."
Montaigne

"I'd Like to Teach the World to Sing"

I'd like to build the world a home and furnish it with love
Grow apple trees and honey bees and snow white turtle doves
I'd like to teach the world to sing in perfect harmony
I'd like to hold it in my arms and keep it company
I'd like to see the world for once all standing hand in hand
And hear them echo through the hills for peace
throughout the land
It's the real thing, what the world wants today
That's the way it'll stay with the real thing
Peace and love
I'd like to teach the world to sing in perfect harmony
A song of peace that echoes on and never goes away
Hold your hand in my hand, let's begin today With your hand in my hand, help me find the way

You've got to get up every morning with a smile on your face And show the world all the love in your heart.
Then people gonna treat you better
You're gonna find, yes you will
That you're beautiful as you feel.

Carole King

"It's a good cause. Right, Hobel?"

"You bet it is!"

SUPER SENIOR

"We're going to spike the juice!"

"We'll taste it first!"

BREAKFAST BUNCH

"Dee, I told you not to eat them all!"

"A bevy of buxom beauties . . .

"Fifteen against eleven should be fair odds."

"Here I am again!"

"The odd squad?"

"Let me make one thing perfectly clear . . ."

"Hi, boys!"

SENIORS I

Eventually . . . . . .
We will be a spectacle in the cycle
The spider's intricate web
The grape's entangling vine
Untying a shoe-lace
And reaching back and untying a bow
That covered my feet, and hid my brain.
Revealing an unironed curtain
Of crinkled wax paper.
As two merging as one.
Unexpected events on our lunch hours,
on our way home.
Daybreak winking an eye,
and arching a bent back.
In an opaque gumdrop land
That leaks white, white milk,
Poplar trees, acorn pitfalls, and peach pits,
harlequin sundae, sunday.
Producing machines and test tubes,
scissors deep,
And unidentifiable.
Second cycle reaching its deep peak.

I return sometimes — when the need arises
to sit upon my firetower
Red wine, a little smoke
a sandwich from Lowe's . . .
The townspeople stare
I stare back trying to recall which ones lost their hubcaps to my youth —
I always sit on the same step and watch the seasons change sometimes the sky feels sunny and I have to leave
I go to Dacey's and have a beer while I watch the hot dog boys get all steamy

In Memory of Anne P. Lorett

We picture death as coming to destroy;
let us rather picture Christ as coming to save.
We think of death as ending;
let us rather think of life as beginning, and that more abundantly.
We think of losing;
let us think of gaining.
We think of parting,
let us think of meeting.
We think of going away;
let us think of arriving.
And as the voice of death whispers
"You must go from earth."
let us hear the voice of Christ saying,
"You are but coming to Me!"

—N. Macleod

"There is never anything going on in Medfield." That is a favorite saying of Medfield students; to me it does not seem to be that way. I am busy all the time — so many new things, experiences, friends. I think Medfield and Medfield High are pretty okay (to use slang). It is better to keep kids going because they think there ought to be something done than having a lot of things to do and forgetting half of it.

"Medfield has got very many characters, outstanding people, that cause a lot of gossiping, but I appreciate each one of the many personalities and all I can say is: Medfield is okay as it is!"

Dear Christl,

We admit you have stolen our hearts; we should have known you would because you are the best pumpkin-stealer that Medfield has ever known. You stole our hearts with your delicious sense of humor and your intriguing personality. We hope we have made your brief stay here one that you will always look back on as giving you days of joy and times to be remembered for a life time. On our part we have grown to love you.

Football 1971

1971 M.H.S. football was basically a rebuilding year. A young team with only eight seniors and definite lack of experience, Medfield finished with a record of 3-4-1. Led by Tri-captains Don Rogers, Peter Martino and Rick Palumbo the team improved week by week although losing a close decision to Millis, in a superb effort and the Thanksgiving game to arch-rival Dover-Sherborn. Tri-captain Peter Martino was selected on the first team for the Tri-Valley All Star squad, while Tom Burr, Bob Duddy, Brian Manganello, Don Rogers, Rick Palumbo, and Steve Hughes received Honorable Mentions. Steve Hughes also received the Homecoming Most Valuable Player for his excellent performance against Bellingham. Co-captain Don Rogers was chosen as All Class Center by the Boston Herald-Traveller for his outstanding play. We congratulate the team for its great effort this year.

BIG BLUE BASKETBALL

The 1972 Big Blue Machine rolled to a season record of 18-2 (Medfield School record), the league championship, and a final record of 19-3. This was the third consecutive year Medfield qualified for the state post-season tournament. After losing the regular season's opening game by one point to Ashland, Big Blue had a streak of 16 straight victories and topped off its great year with a stunning victory over its confident arch-rival, Dover Sherborn. The small, but quick and talented team won its first tourney game, but bowed to Silver Lake in the second one. Senior Dave Iverson surpassed the 1000 point mark and went on to become the highest scorer in Medfield's history. We congratulate the Big Blue and Coach Ruggiero for a job well done.

Medfield started its first winter track season this year. Coached by Gary Youlden, Medfield's young, promising team finished with a record of one win and six losses. Scott Campbell, running the 40 yard dash, set a league record of 4.6 seconds and won first place in the league. Other outstanding members were junior Bob Duddy in the 300 yard run and sophomore Mark Erichsen in the 2 mile. Winter track should prove very helpful to spring track this year and in years to come.

FIELD HOCKEY

The Girls' Field Hockey Team had its most successful season since the sport was started four years ago in Medfield High School. The two co-captains, Robin Erichsen and Susan Champagne led the team to a 3-2-2 record. The only losses were by a one point difference. The high scorer for the team was Sally Evans. Under the guidance of Coach Kelley, the team showed impressive ability and sportsmanship in the games played against the other teams of the league.

BASKETBALL

The girls' varsity basketball team had a very successful record of eight wins and two losses. Miss Klosowski, a young and experienced coach, led the team to victory for their second year in a row. With this outstanding season, the team entered two tournaments: the Southeastern Massachusetts Girls' Invitational Tournament, which they lost, and the Southbridge Tournament, which they won. The two players representing Medfield for the All-Star Game were Robin Erichsen, and April Goodwin, who also won the Most Valuable Player Award in the Southbridge Tournament.

Children . . .
You may give them your love but not your thoughts,
For they have thoughts of their own.
You may house their bodies, but not their souls,
For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow, which you cannot visit, not even in your dreams.
You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like you.

From the

STUDENT COUNCIL

To every thing there is a season,
And a time for every purpose under heaven:
A time to be born, a time to die;
A time to plant, a time to reap;
A time to kill, a time to heal;
A time to laugh, a time to weep.

To every thing there is a season,
And a time for every purpose under heaven:
A time to build up, a time to break down;
A time to dance, a time to mourn;
A time to cast away stones, a time to gather stones together.

To every thing there is a season,
And a time for every purpose under heaven:
A time to gain, a time to lose;
A time to rend, a time to sew;
A time to love, a time to hate;
A time for peace, I swear it's not too late.

Book of Ecclesiastes

The question is not what we'll be doing when we get there, but rather how to go and feel good that you're going. Going there is being there or at least almost being there. Knowing what to do once you get there must be something like knowing what to do when you're anywhere, knowing what to do when. I guess that if we're going there anyway we might as well start now, beginning to start to go is what most of these songs are about, getting there I ain't wrote about yet, I don't know if I ever will. I don't know if it could be wrote down anyway.

— Arlo Guthrie

SENIORS II

Stages

As every flower fades and as all youth
Departs, so life at every stage,
So every virtue, so our grasp of truth,
Blooms in its day and may not last forever.
Since life may summon us at every age
Be ready, heart, for parting, new endeavor,
Be ready bravely and without remorse
To find new light that old ties cannot give.
In all beginnings dwells a magic force
For guarding us and helping us to live.

Serenely let us move to distant places
And let no sentiments of home detain us.
The Cosmic Spirit seeks not to restrain us
But lifts us stage by stage to wider spaces.
If we accept a home of our own making,
Familiar habit makes for indolence.
We must prepare for parting and leave-taking
Or else remain the slaves of permanence.

Even the hour of our death may send Us speeding on to fresh and newer spaces,
And life may summon us to newer races.
So be it, heart: bid farewell without end.

—Hesse

We leave:

the Juniors a "Do-it-Yourself Float Kit" . . . (Keep Smiling).

We leave the Sophomores at the mercy of the freshmen.

Farewell to you and the youth I have spent with you.

It was only yesterday we met in a dream.

You have sung to me in my aloneness, and I of your longings have built a tower in the sky.

But now our sleep has fled and our dream is over, and it is no longer dawn.

The noontide is upon us and our half waking has turned to a fuller day, and we must part.

If in the twilight of memory we should meet once more, we shall speak again together and you shall sing me a deeper song.

And if our hands should meet in another dream we shall build another tower in the sky.

—Kahlil Gibran
